PROJECT LEARN OF SUMMIT COUNTY

About Project Learn

For 45 years, Project Learn of Summit County has helped adults build brighter futures through literacy, GED®, English language learning (ESOL), workforce development, and college and career readiness programs. More than 30,000 adults have been served since 1981.

Community Impact

- 1, 800 adults served last fiscal year
- 120 GED® credentials earned last fiscal year
- 120 adults earned a workforce industry-recognized credential
- 40 people earned a national workforce readiness credential in soft skills.
- 47,411 instructional hours provided last fiscal year
- Programs in literacy, GED®, ESOL, and workforce development

Why Sponsor?

Your sponsorship helps recognize the hard work and achievement of adult learners while supporting future opportunities for students across Summit County.

Sponsors receive community visibility, event recognition, social media exposure, and the opportunity to invest in education, workforce development, and lifelong learning.
